

Is your preschooler starting to ask the 'hard questions'; wondering about bodies and babies?

Talk to your center director or management about booking a session or contact Margie for bookings and costs.

Let's talk about the birds and the bees

HUSHeducation can come to your preschool, childcare center or playgroup to present a fun and informative session for parents and carers.

Topics covered include:

- When to start talking about sex stuff.
- What information to start with.
- How to answer those tricky questions.
- What is 'typical' for my child's age.
